RE: Legal/Professional ServicesNOTIFICATION OF RIGHTS

Please note –

Your rights in relation to legal costs

If the accompanying bill is not an itemised bill and you wish to have an itemised bill you may request one while you are entitled to apply for an assessment of our costs.

In the event of a dispute in relation to costs the following avenues are open to you –

Costs assessment. You may apply to the Supreme Court of Western Australia for an assessment of the whole of any part of the costs. The application must be made within 12 months after the bill is given to you.

Setting aside costs agreement. You may apply for an order by a costs assessor that the costs agreement you have entered into, or a provision of the agreement, be set aside.

Mediation. You may seek the mediation of a costs dispute at any time before an application for assessment is accepted by the Manager, Costs Assessment of the Supreme Court.

You can obtain more information about your rights from the Legal Practice Board of Western Australia and the Board's fact sheet titled "Your right to challenge legal costs."
